B) ACE Principal Adams wishes to recognize Curriculum Intervention Coach Debbie Harlinger who chose to address the desperate shape of the entrance garden at the school. She donated time and labor, purchased mulch and flowers for the school's entrance garden. Others assisted Ms. Harlinger with the manual labor in the garden – enhancing its beauty. Many people see something and say, "Somebody needs to do something about that." A few people see something and say, "I need to do something about that." Thanks to Debbie Harlinger for being one of the few.

C) Pegram Elementary School and Harpeth Middle School received an unannounced visit from the State Department of Education Assessment during our TCAP April testing. They were monitored on Security Procedures, Building Testing Procedures, and Classroom Testing Procedures. The findings were satisfactory in all areas and the SDOE wishes to congratulate PES Principal Barrow, PES Staff, HMS Principal Schliwa, HMS Staff, Elementary Supervisor Dr. Gibbs, and Interim Middle School Supervisor Young.

D) ACE Librarian Mary Beth Hunt has received a $5,000.00 grant from the Dollar General Literacy Foundation. The money will be used for books, magazines, and newspapers.
